DAY 1 ARRIVE BUCHAREST

Upon arrival in Bucharest, you are transferred to our hotel. Tonight we will have an orientation meeting followed by dinner.

Overnight in Bucharest.

DAY 2 BUCHAREST EXPLORING

We begin our morning with a guided city tour of Bucharest, seeing the historical downtown and the Parliament Building, which was designed and nearly completed by the Ceausescu Regime as the seat of political and administrative power in Romania. Constructing the Palace required demolishing much of Bucharest's historic district, including 19 Orthodox Christian churches, six Jewish synagogues, three Protestant churches (plus eight relocated churches), and 30,000 residences. This is the world's second largest building after the Pentagon.

DAY 3 TO BRASOV VIA SINAIA, AND BRAN CASTLE

Departing Bucharest, we begin our journey to Brasov, crossing the Carpathian Mountains. This is our point of entry into Transylvania, the land of Magyar, Saxon, Secler, Romanian and Moc Peoples. Enroute, we stop in Sinaia, named after Mount Sinai in Egypt. It is a mountainside town with winding streets and colorful houses. We visit Peles Castle, a former royal residence. Built between 1875 and 1883, the castle contains many architectural styles, 160 rooms, and beautiful terraces.

After lunch we drive to Bran Castle, one of the most famous castles in Europe and the setting of the famous Bram Stoker novel. Falsely attributed as a residence of Vlad Tepes and the Dracula myth, it is still a very impressive castle even if it isn't connected with infamy! The castle was built in 1378 atop a cliff that served as a customs checkpoint and as a strategic point for protecting the pass. Its narrow stone stairways, the comfortable rooms and furnishings give one a first-hand look at the life of nobles that ruled the region in the 15th and 16th centuries.

Overnight in Brasov.

DAY 4 BRASOV SIGHTSEEING, RISNOV

This morning we explore the downtown core of Brasov, one of the seven main Saxon cities. It has a well-preserved downtown square that is surrounded by beautiful buildings. (It is reminiscent of squares found in Prague.) We visit the Black Church, named so by a fire that blackened its walls. Erected in 1476, the Gothic cathedral has a 250-foot high tower and an organ with 4000 pipes. We also visit the first Romanian school with amazing old Slavic manuscripts.

After lunch, we drive through the nearby mountains to the fortress of Risnov with its stunning panorama of the surrounding area. This enormous citadel was built around the year 1215 by the Teutonic Knights and was conquered only once in its history. The citadel is most famous for a well (470 ft/143 m deep) that was dug by Turkish prisoners of war during a siege and which sits today in the center of the fortress.

Overnight in Brasov.

DAY 5 PREJMAR, VISCRI, STORK VILLAGE

This morning we explore Prejmar, a former Saxon fortified church in a town outside Brasov. This church is exquisite in design and contrast, featuring thick walls with internal passages that were used to defend the inhabitants from attack. The Hungarian king, Geza the 2nd, first invited the Saxons to the area in the 13th century, mainly to develop and re-settle the area after the Tatar invasions. The Saxons lived in this area until the revolution of 1989, when most of the population left. The Saxon heritage is most valuable from both a cultural and architectural point of view.

After an hour drive, we will stop at the village of Viscri (UNESCO World Heritage Site), with one of the most impressive of all the Saxon citadels. From the tower, there is a view of the idyllic countryside and of the village, a classic Saxon Strassendorf, with a row of houses on either side of a single street and a brook running down the center. Hear about the history of the village from one of the last Saxon inhabitants as we learn about the traditions, culture and folklore of the local people. Enjoy a typical Saxon lunch with a local family.

We continue through the Homorod valley where we pass the official stork village of Romania, Sinpaul. The white stork is the national bird for most of the Eastern European countries and we will see the many nests built by the storks here.

Overnight in Odorheiu Secuiesc.

DAY 6 MT. HARGITA HIKES, SECLER GATES AND ENLAKA VILLAGE

This morning we drive up to Mt. Hargita, the sacred peak of the local Seclers, via the scenic Ivo-stream valley. There we have a two hour-long hike to the very peak, where we can enjoy the landscape of central Transylvania with long-range views of the Carpathians. After lunch, below the top of the hill, we enjoy a short break, before continuing on to the remote village of Enlaka. Enroute we stop in a small village, famous for its dozens of “Secler-gates”, whose beauty adorns the streets. These gates were a sign of hospitality and showcased the skill of local woodworkers. Many of these gates are more than one hundred years old, and are deemed to be national monuments. Afterwards continue on to Enlaka, a traditional Unitarian village and a potential UNESCO World Heritage Site that preserves the ancient traditions and architecture of the local people. After sightseeing in the local museum and Unitarian church, we enjoy a dinner in a local barn cooked by a local family.

Overnight in Odorheiu Secuiesc.

DAY 7 BIERTAN, SIGHISOARA

Today we will visit more Saxon heritage sites. Our first stop is the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Biertan. The Saxons built this fortified church, which houses a magnificent altar made up of 28 panels, in the 15th century. We drive through picturesque countryside seeing other secluded Saxon villages before arriving at Sighisoara (Shassburg), the best-preserved medieval/fortified Saxon town in Europe. Walk up to Citadel Hill along narrow winding streets crowned with a 200-foot clock tower that watches over the main gate. This 14th-century building contains old documents, weapons, coins and glass icons. Atop Citadel Hill, there is a Gothic cathedral with strange stone sculptures on the buttresses. You can also visit the house where Vlad Tepes "Dracula" was born. It is now a pub!

Overnight in Odorheiu Secuiesc.

DAY 8 CHARCOAL MAKERS TO BUCOVINA

Our first stop will be a small pass to see the work of a traditional charcoal maker before continuing on to the village of Korond, whose inhabitants are the most famous handicraft makers in the country and where more than 5000 families make a livelihood from producing ceramics and wooden crafts.

We continue on to Voronet, our base to explore the famous Painted Monasteries of Bucovina. Our journey today has us crossing the Bucsin-Pass of the Eastern Carpathians through beautiful traditional countryside towards our base in remote Bucovina, home of the painted monasteries.

■ DAY 9 PAINTED MONASTERIES OF BUCOVINA: VORONET, VATRA MOLDOVITA, SUCEVITA, VAMA JEWISH CEMETERY AND EGG MUSEUM, MARGINEA, CACIKA, SOLCA

Among the most picturesque treasures of Romania are the Painted Monasteries of Bucovina. Their painted exterior walls are decorated with elaborate 15th and 16th century frescoes featuring portraits of saints and prophets, scenes from the life of Jesus, images of angels and demons, and heaven and hell. Deemed masterpieces of Byzantine art, these churches are one-of-a-kind architectural sites in Europe. Far from being merely wall decorations, the murals represent complete cycles of religious doctrine. The purpose of the frescoes was to make the story of the Bible and the lives of the most important Orthodox saints known to villagers by the use of images. Their outstanding composition, elegant outline and harmonious colors blend perfectly with the surrounding landscape. Some of Romania's most beautiful countryside is to be found in Bucovina, whose rolling green hills nestle villages and monasteries within their valleys. Horses decked with red-tasseled bridles travel country lanes, as villagers crowd churchyards in traditional folk dress on Sundays and holidays. Seven of the churches were placed on the UNESCO World Heritage list in 1993. The eighth, Sucevita, is awaiting sanction to be added to the list.

Today we will explore the Painted Monasteries of Voronet, Vatra Moldovita, Sucevita and we also stop at the abandoned Jewish cemetery near Vama and visit an egg museum. Later we will stop at the Polish village of Cacika to see its cathedral and the Soviet war cemetery of Solca.

Overnight in Voronet.

■ DAY 10 PAINTED MONASTERIES OF BUCOVINA: HUMOR, PETRAUC, SUCEVITA. SUCEAVA FORTRESS

We have a second day to explore the painted monasteries, this time visiting the monasteries of Humor, Petrauc and Sucevita, as well as the Coronation Church of Suceava and the nearby Suceava Fortress. There will be plenty of photo opportunities to capture the beautiful landscape of Romania, and see local people travelling on horse carts, surrounded by hundreds of handmade haystacks.

Overnight in Voronet.

Moc village.

DAY 11 BUCOVINA TO MARAMUREŞ - CIACONESTI, PRISLOP, BORSA, SACEL, DRAGOMIRESTI

Today we begin our long drive through spectacular and traditional mountain scenery through one of the more remote parts of Romania. Our first stop today is the village of Ciaconesti, noted for its decorated Hutul houses, which form an outdoor living museum. Most of the houses bear traditional motifs with Ukrainian influence, similar to painted Easter eggs. The village is on the shore of the Bistrica River, which is known as an excellent fly-fishing river and where an annual trout-festival takes place.

We leave behind the historical area of Bucovina, and cross the highest pass of Northern Romania, Prislop Pass (1400m); a beautiful alpine region, known to house the last population of Romanian Black grouses. On our way towards Sighetul Marmatei, we will have our first glance at the Maramureş style of church, with the beautifully decorated wooden churches of Borsa and Leud. The whole Maramureş region is home to the extremely hospitable Moroseni people, who are known for their unchanged way of life and for their well-preserved wooden villages and churches. About 30 churches belong to this architectural style, mostly built in the 17th-18th centuries, with 8 of them belonging to Unesco World Heritage. It is perhaps one of the well known regions of Romania but due to its remoteness is seldom visited. We will also stop at the Museum of Peasant Woman in Dragomiresti village, which is dedicated to the celebration of the role of the woman as mother, wife and her role as 'engine of life - the one who keeps the traditional customs, folklore and language alive'.

Overnight in Sighetu Marmatiei.

DAY 12 MARAMUREŞ - EXPLORING COSAU AND THE IZA VALLEY - BUDESTI, SARBI, BARSANA, BOTIZA, POIENILE IZEI

Today is dedicated to visiting the most famous examples of the Maramureş monasteries and churches, including the Rozavlea, Poienile Izei, Barsana, Budesti and Desesti wooden churches. They are mostly Romanian-Orthodox (with a few exceptions of Greek-Orthodox), built by thick timber, as a response to the prohibition against the erection of stone orthodox churches by the Catholic Austro-Hungarian authorities of the era. Most of them share similar characteristics of being tall, having slim bell towers at the western edge of the building and painted inside with beautiful Biblical scenes.

We will stop at the traditional water mill workshop and whirlpools of Sarbi village, a place for washing clothes, rugs and blankets. The village also well-known for its hat-makers, which is a common part of male traditional dress, and there are plenty of wool rugs for sale.

Overnight in Sighetu Marmatiei.

DAY 13 MARAMURES - PERI MONASTERY, MERRY CEMETERY, COMMUNIST VICTIMS MEMORIAL, ELIE WIESEL MUSEUM

On our tour today we will visit the local sights in and around Sighetul Marmatiei. First we drive to the tallest wooden church of the region, the Peri-Sapanta church, located in a beautiful Dendrological park. The original church was built in 1391 but decayed significantly and so was rebuilt in 1997. The tower is 78 meters tall and the building is considered the tallest wooden church in the world, as registered in the Guinness Book of Records.

Later we continue to the Sapinta Merry Cemetery, known for its brightly colored tombstones which depicts interesting or funny moments of the deceased, many with greatly written epitaphs. The cemetery also functions as an open-air museum and is known as one of the so-called "Seven Wonders of Romania." We visit a workshop for wooden painted crosses nearby.

After lunch we visit the Communists Victims' Memorial, before we finish at the Memorial House of Elie Wiesel, which also houses the Museum of Jewish Culture in Maramureş. Elie Wiesel, a Nobel-prized writer (1986) was born and raised in this region and is a descendant of a Hungarian Jewish family who was deported to Auschwitz for 11 months, before his liberation and is the only survivor of his family. Later he emigrated to the US and Canada, and died in Manhattan, NY in 2016.

We leave the Carpathian region of Romania, entering Hungary along the Hungarian Great Plain and its floodplain of the Tisza and Bodrog Rivers. A longer morning drive takes us to the world famous wine region of Tokaj.

The small town of Tokaj has less than 4000 inhabitants (of six different religions) and is situated on the shore of the Bodrog river at the foot of Tokaj Hill. The area is world-renowned for its famous white dessert and ice-wines wines, such as "Aszu", "Szomorodni." DAY 15 ZEMPLEN HILLS - REGEC AND BOLDOGKOVARALJA FORTRESSES

We have a relaxing day to drive around and visit Zemplen Hills, the most remote and tranquil part of Hungary, with its small villages, gentle hills and huge forests, inhabited by wolves and eagles. The area is dotted with several beautiful hilltop fortresses built during the medieval times, when most of the old Hungarian kingdom was under Ottoman rule, and only a small section, including Zemplen Hills was left alone. After the Tatar invasion of the 14th century, the Hungarian king, Bela the 4th, ordered all the local landlords to build this type of fortress which would provide the local population a better chance of survival and help defend the roads and the country. The dozens of fortresses survived several centuries and functioned as shelters later in the Turkish era. Many of them saw the largest battles of the era between the 15th -17th century.

We will visit the fortress Regec, known for its scenery and location, which was home to one of the most famous Hungarian freedom fighters, Ferenc Rakoczi 2nd, who led the national uprising against the Austrian Habsburgs at the beginning of the 18th century. We will get an overview into the last 1100 years of the history of Hungary, which also shaped the history of Central Europe and the Balkans up to the up to the early 20th century. On the way back, we also stop at the picturesque Boldogkovaralja fortress, overlooking the lovely Hernad river-valley, and the village below.
