DAY 1 ARRIVE IN DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

Welcome to Croatia! Upon arrival in Croatia, you will be met at the airport and transferred to our hotel. The town of Mlini is a charming little fishing town located 12km outside of Dubrovnik, making it a perfect and relaxing base for sightseeing.

Overnight in Mlini.

DAY 2 DUBROVNIK SIGHTSEEING

This morning we visit the fabled city of Dubrovnik. Its motto is "Libertas" (liberty), because for several centuries the city-state of Dubrovnik (the so-called Ragusa) managed to preserve its independence while the coast fell under the sway of foreign powers. At its 16th-century height, the republic had the third largest merchant fleet in the world. Only a few will notice any remaining signs of the 1991-1992 siege, during which over 2000 enemy shells fell on the old city. Reconstruction was undertaken with astonishing speed and the old town again resembles its former self. We walk along the main street to Luza Square, original to the medieval town, where St. Blaise's Church and Orlando's Column stand. The marble-paved squares, steps, and streets are lined with numerous, finely carved fountains, palaces, churches, and monasteries.

Bled Castle

Postojna Cave.

After lunch in the Old Town, we will travel by local ferry to Lokrum Island Nature Reserve. One of the many Adriatic islands along the coast, it lies about 700 meters from the mainland. The island is covered with laurel, oak, pine and cypress trees as well as olives, agaves, cacti, magnolia and palms and is home to roaming peacocks. In 1959 a botanical garden was founded, including a small salt lake. Our walk takes us past a deserted Benedictine monastery founded in 1023. We can climb to the fortress lookout tower for a spectacular view of the old city of Dubrovnik.

We have a 30 minute ferry ride back to Dubrovnik, where the afternoon is free to explore on your own. You can spend your time visiting some of the many museums to get a more insider's view about the medieval life of the Republic of Ragusa, as Dubrovnik was called that time (Rectors' Palace, the Ethnographic and Maritime Museum are highly recommended). Enjoy a stroll around the Old Town (Placa), walk the city wall, ride the funicular for a great vista, visit one of the many beautiful beaches, or visit some of Dubrovnik's incredible art galleries. The city is yours to discover!

Overnight in Mlini.

DAY 3 PANORAMIC DRIVE THROUGH MONTENEGRO: KOTOR, KOTOR FJORD

Today is a long, exciting day! We leave our hotel early and cross the border into Montenegro to the beautiful coastal town of Kotor, tucked in the embrace of high mountains, bent over a deep bay (southern most fjord of Europe!) of the Mediterranean Sea. Kotor Bay is on the list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The high craggy peaks of the bay make this landscape unforgettable, especially on rainy days, when a myriad of colors reflect off of the sea. After a guided walking tour, we'll enjoy lunch in the historic city center.

After lunch in Kotor, we'll begin the drive back to Croatia. Before returning to Mlini, we'll drive to the top of Srd Mountain for a stunning view of Dubrovnik and the Elaphiti Islands. We'll also stop at the Croatian War of Independence Museum at Fort Imperial, where we'll learn about the events of the war and its impacts on the Dubrovnik region between 1991 and 1995.

After exploring Montenegro, one of the hidden pearls of the Adriatic and the smallest State of the former Yugoslavia, we return to Croatia.

Overnight in Mlini.

DAY 4 TRSTENO PLANE TREES, STON, MOSTAR (BOSNIA)

We say goodbye to Dubrovnik this morning and continue our drive towards Bosnia. On our way to Mostar, we stop enroute at the gates of the Trsteno Arboretum to see two giant plane trees (Platanus orientalis), considered to be among the oldest in all of Europe - over 500 years, with trunks over 5 meters (16 feet) in diameter!

Our next stop is Ston. This is a coastal town that dates back to Roman times, and is known for its natural salt production and enormous city wall, the second longest after the Chinese Great Wall. We will see part of the 3-mile stone wall originally built to protect the salt works, whose product was known as "white gold".

After crossing the border to Bosnia we will drive to Mostar and have dinner overlooking the magnificent Neretva River with its famous Old Bridge, and mosques in the background.

Overnight in Mostar.

Predjama Castle

DAY 5 SARAJEVO

Driving through mountainous central Bosnia-Herzegovina to the capital, Sarajevo, we find one of the most Oriental cities in Europe. Here, amongst the minarets and the Bascarsija market, we can find the true Turkish coffee. Our tour will show us the city's multicultural religions, cultural make up and the hope of the city in its post war revitalization. We also visit the spot where Franz Ferdinand was killed, a historically important event in starting WW1. We return to Mostar for dinner and overnight. Overnight in Mostar.

DAY 6 BOSNIA: MOSTAR SIGHTSEEING, BLAGAJ MONASTERY

After breakfast we set out to enjoy the magnificent city of Mostar, the unofficial capital of Herzegovina, in the southern region of Bosnia-Herzegovina. The Old Town is entered through its famous stone arch, "Stari Most", a bridge binding two banks of the emerald Neretva River. This is a city of heroism and poetry and composed of narrow, winding streets. Here we will visit the Old Bridge, a Turkish house, and a mosque, as we learn about the cities Muslim heritage.

After lunch, we have an option to take a break, or visit Blagaj Monastery, built in 1520 for the dervish cult, situated in a beautiful setting near a strong karst spring. Blagaj village still retained its oriental-settlement character, and is decorated with a massive fortress wall from the medieval times.

Overnight in Mostar.

DAY 7 CROATIA: KLIS FORTRESS, SPLIT SIGHTSEEING

After breakfast, we drive back to Croatia. Enroute, we stop at Klis Fortress, perched on a cliff high above Split. The fortress dates back over 2,000 years and was a stronghold first used by the ancient Illyrian tribe Dalmatae. Later, it was of strategic importance to the Romans, Croatian kings in the Middle Ages, the Ottomans, the Venetians, and the Austro-Hungarians. During the early 16th century, Croats used the fortress to defend against Turkish invasion and a

We continue onwards to Split, which is the largest Croatian city on the Adriatic Coast. Split made its mark on the map in the 4th century, when Roman Emperor Diocletian had his retirement palace built here. Diocletian's Palace is one of the most imposing Roman ruins in the world. More a fortress than a palace, it contained the imperial residence, temples and a mausoleum. We will see the vestibule of the original palace, the fortress' colonnaded square, the Temple of Jupiter and the remains of Diocletian's Mausoleum, now a cathedral. In this part of the old town, everyday life bustles along in an open-air museum setting.

Overnight in Skradin.

DAY 8 BOAT CRUISE TO VISOVAC ISLAND, KRKA FALLS, TORAK SPRING

This morning, enjoy a 1-hour boat trip on the Krka River to Visovac Island. Here we have a short-guided tour of the Franciscan Monastery. After our return boat trip, we walk throughout the national park to see hundreds of beautiful small waterfalls, deep in the river gorge. This area was declared to be a national park in 1985, primarily for its several rapids and cascades, also preserving one of the most valuable freshwater ecosystems of the country. A short drive through the countryside brings us to a great location at the top of a 100 meter (656 foot) cliff overlooking the stunning valley with emerald green Torak Spring at the bottom of the canyon.

After lunch, you have free time to enjoy the picturesque town of Skradin, complete with cobblestone streets and a busy harbor.

Overnight in Skradin.

DAY 9 SIBENIK, ZADAR

After breakfast, we have a short drive to Sibenik. Here, we explore the sights, including the Gothic Renaissance St. Jacob's Cathedral, which is on the UNESCO World Heritage List, and the citadel on a top of a cliff.

We then make our way to the city of Zadar and enjoy a guided tour of this historical city. The Roman forum is well preserved and the Venetian walls still stand, as do ancient Croatian churches, monasteries and palaces. Zadar has always been outward looking and has shared agriculture, shipbuilding, shipping and trade with people of the Mediterranean.

Overnight in Zadar.

DAY 10 PAKLENICA GORGES NATIONAL PARK

In 1978, the area of Paklenica National Park was put under the protection of the United Nations program

"Man and the Biosphere". With its two monumental canyons, the second largest European preserve of Austrian fir, ancient beech forests and steep cliffs, this natural phenomenon is recognized as one of the most beautiful national parks of the northeast Mediterranean. Many species, particularly reptiles and birds, have been recorded here, including some rare and endangered species. We'll also visit a museum in one of Paklenica's hidden underground tunnels. These bunkers were built by the Yugoslav Army between 1950 and 1953, a period that saw increasing political tensions between Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union (USSR).

Next, we make our way to the island of Pag, famous for its high quality sheep cheeses. We'll visit a family farm for lunch and cheese tasting while learning about what makes the island's cheeses so unique.

Overnight in Zadar.

Amphitheatre of Pula

DAY 11 PLITVICE LAKES NATIONAL PARK

Today we travel to Plitvice National Park. This day is one of our longest travel days, however we have several stops to enjoy the beautiful natural scenery.

We make our way to the Plitvice Waterfalls, located in a valley situated between high-forested mountains and surrounded by sixteen crystal clear blue-green lakes. The lakes are fed by many small streams and brooks which eventually form dramatic cascades and thundering waterfalls. Due to their unique evolution and beauty, in 1979 the Plitvice Lakes were entered in the UNESCO World Heritage List. The exceptional beauty of the lakes and waterfalls, rich plant and animal life, forests of incredibly contrasting colors and the pure mountain air attract nature lovers from all over the world.

Arriving in the early evening into Lovran, located on the Adriatic Opatija Riviera, we check into our hotel where we stay for 2 nights.

Overnight in Lovran.

DAY 12 ISTRIA PENINSULA: PULA, ROVINJ, POREC

First we travel to Pula, which is famous for its 1st century Roman amphitheater overlooking the harbor. We tour the ruins to see the 30 meter high limestone outer walls that could house 20,000 spectators. We wander through the Temple of Augustus to see the statue of James Joyce.

We continue onward to the charming fishing town of Rovinj for lunch, followed by a guided tour to see St. Euphemia's Church. The church is named after a martyr saint from the 6th century and has a commanding hilltop location. Later in the afternoon, we visit Porec to see a 6th century UNESCO World Heritage Site basilica and its Byzantine gold mosaics. We then return to Lovran where we have time to relax before dinner.

Overnight in Lovran.

DAY 13 ISTRIA PENINSULA: HUM, GROZNJAN, MOTOVUN

We’ll also visit a local olive oil producer to learn about Istrian olive oil production and taste Motovun. Next, we head to Groznjan, Istria’s “town of artists”. The hilltop town is known for its jazz festival, numerous art galleries, some of the region’s finest olive oils. Our final stop of the day is Motovun, one of inland Istria’s gems. The town and its iconic tower are perched above the Mirna River Valley. Here we have an opportunity to sample some special local brandies, schnapps, and truffle products, which are made in the area.

Before dinner, we’ll walk around the town’s medieval defense walls, which offer stunning views of the surrounding hills - especially at sunset.

Overnight in Motovun.

DAY 14 SKOCJAN CAVE, LIPICA, TRIESTE SIGHTSEEING

This morning, we walk 2 kms through the incredible Skocjan Cave, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We will walk 90 meters above the giant underground River Reka and finish our trip on the bottom of the deep sinkhole, before the funicular takes us back to the starting point.

Overnight in Piran.

DAY 16 POSTOJNA CAVE, PREDJAMA CASTLE

This morning we drive to the caves of Postojna. Hidden deep within this world-famous cave lies a rare beauty created over millions of years; carved, shaped and created by water - year after year. A small electric train shuttles us into the cave and from inside the cave we can witness the incredible stalactites shaped like needles, icicles, and even columns and pillars. Another highlight of the cave is a small tank filled with pink olms (fully aquatic, blind cave salamanders). These bizarre little animals are also named the "human fish" (Proteus Anguinus) and inhabit only 2 or 3 caves of the Dalmatian Coast. Postojna Cave has a constant temperature of between 8-10 degrees Celsius with a humidity of 95%.

After our lunch, we visit Predjama Castle, situated in the mouth of a hillside cavern. We hear the legend of the famous robber, Baron Erazem Lueger, a maverick

The rest of the afternoon is free to relax or take a hike to Savica Falls, the highest in the country and one of the two sources of the Sava River. We also stop enroute to see a small picturesque WWI cemetery. During WWI, the area was the front line between the Austro-Hungarian army and the allies.
