Throw in the color of Jaipur and Udaipur in Rajasthan for a truly wonderful adventure.

DAY 1 ARRIVE IN NEW DELHI

Arrive in New Delhi, the bustling capital of India and transfer to our comfortable hotel in the city. Delhi is slowly becoming the largest city in India rapidly catching up to Mumbai (Bombay) and Kolkata (Calcutta).

In addition, Delhi has long since eclipsed them in political importance. In some areas it remains a spacious garden city, tree-lined with beautiful parks, but it can also be crowded and raucous. Turbaned Sikhs, colorfully dressed Rajasthani and Gujarati women working as manual laborers on building sites and the shopkeepers along Janpath Road all add to the cosmopolitan feel of the city. The rest of the day is free to relax or to explore, before our orientation meeting and welcome dinner.

Overnight in New Delhi.

DAY 2 CITY TOUR OF NEW & OLD DELHI, DIWALI CELEBRATION

We spend the day in Delhi, exploring some of the sights in both the "Old" and the "New" cities. In Old Delhi, we visit the Jama Masjid - India's largest Mosque, and also enjoy a rickshaw ride through Chandi Chowk, Delhi's famous "Silver Street".

Holy Ganges River.

In New Delhi, we see the Qutab Minar, Gandhi's tomb, as well as see India Gate - the "Arc de Triomphe" that leads to the Indian Parliament, which we will drive through.

Tonight we will have the opportunity to celebrate Diwali with a local family starting with dinner and afterwards taking part in Diwali Puja Ceremony along with the locals. We will gain an understanding of the rituals which is an integral part of the Hindu culture.

Overnight in New Delhi.

DAY 3 TO VARANASI, EVENING CEREMONY ON THE GANGES

We depart Delhi by plane to the "Eternal City" of Varanasi, also known as Benares. The city lies on the west bank of the Ganges at a point where it sweeps in a great bend north, before resuming its southeasterly course to the sea. India's most sacred city, it was already an important town in the 7th century BC when Babylon was at the peak of its power and was certainly well established by the time Buddha arrived here in 500 BC. Varanasi is said to combine the virtues of all other places of pilgrimage, and anyone dying within the area is transported straight to heaven. This is why many devout Hindus move to Varanasi to end their days and have their ashes scattered in the holy Ganges.

We journey to our hotel to prepare for our evening experience starting with a rickshaw ride to visit a ghat at aarti (prayer) time.

Overnight in Varanasi.

DAY 4 VARANASI, SUNRISE ON THE HOLY GANGES RIVER, VISIT SARNATH

An early morning boat trip on the Ganges River takes us past the ghats where pilgrims have come to purify themselves and where bathing and cremations are regular activities in these sacred waters. After the boat trip we visit Sarnath, the ancient site where Buddha gave his first sermon. Today the monks are long gone and the buildings are in ruin but its setting among green grass and beautiful trees makes it an ideal place to experience India's profound past. Tonight we take a boat ride for a special ceremony with traditional music along the Ganges River.

Overnight in Varanasi.

DAY 5 KHAJURAHO

In the morning, we take a short flight to Khajuraho, a medieval city filled with intriguing temples. In the afternoon we explore Khajuraho's temples (declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site). Intricately carved, these ancient temples depict human and divine forms engaged in daily life.

Overnight in Khajuraho.

DAY 6 ORCHHA, LOCAL HOME EXPERIENCE

This morning we depart to Orchha, arriving in time for our cooking class in a local home. We have the opportunity to learn how to prepare local Indian dishes as well as enjoy a sumptuous feast with our hosts. This will be much more than a cooking lesson as you get a first-hand glimpse into Indian life as you interact with a family in their home. After lunch we say goodbye to our hosts and explore the temples of Orchha. In the evening we will see these ancient temples come alive with the brilliant lights that make them shine.

Overnight in Orchha.

DAY 7 AMERMAHAL PALACE, TRAIN TO AGRA

In the morning, we visit the Amermahal Palace, which resembles a European-style castle. In the afternoon we drive to Jhansi where we board the train for Agra, home to the Taj Mahal. Upon our arrival in Agra, we check into the hotel for dinner.

Overnight in Agra.

DAY 8 AGRA - TAJ MAHAL, AGRA FORT AND ITMAD-UD-DAULAH TOMB

We have a full day to explore some of the most famous sights of Agra, including the Taj Mahal (UNESCO). This white marbled jewel was built over a 22-year period by Shah Jehan as a monument to his great love for his wife.

We also visit Agra Fort (UNESCO) built by Akbar the Great, which includes the Pearl Mosque, the Palace, and the Halls of Private and Public Audience. Later, we visit the Itmad-Ud-Daulah Tomb, which was also known as the mini Taj Mahal. We will learn why this tomb pre-dates the Taj Mahal as we marvel in the lace design that makes this tomb so unique.

Overnight in Agra.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE TAJ MAHAL:

In 1612, Arjumand Banu Begam, better known by her other name, Mumtaz Mahal was married to Shah Jehan (then Prince Khurram), the fifth Mughal Emperor. This marriage, although the emperor's second, was a real love-match, and Mumtaz was her husband's inseparable companion on all his journeys and military expeditions.

She was his comrade, his counselor, and inspired him to acts of charity and benevolence towards the weak and the needy. She bore him fourteen children, and died in childbirth in 1630 (only three years after his accession to the throne) in Burhanpur in the Deccan Plateau where she had accompanied him on a military campaign.

Overpowered by grief, Shah Jehan was determined to perpetuate her memory for immortality, and decided to build his beloved wife the finest sepulchre ever - a monument of eternal love. It was Shah Jehan's everlasting love for Mumtaz that led to the genesis of the Taj Mahal. The sad circumstances, which attended the early death of the empress who had endeared herself to the people, inspired all his subjects to join in the emperor's pious intentions.

After twenty-two laborious years, and the combined effort of over twenty thousand workmen and master craftsmen, the complex was finally completed in 1648 on the banks on the river Yamuna in Agra, the capital of Mughal monarchs.

The origin of the name the "Taj Mahal" is not clear. Court histories from Shah Jehan's reign only call it the Rauza (tomb) of Mumtaz Mahal. It is generally believed that "Taj Mahal" (usually translated as either "Crown Palace" or "Crown of the Palace") is an abbreviated version of her name, Mumtaz Mahal (Exalted One of the Palace) -Saumya Lashkari

DAY 9 BHARATPUR BIRD SANCTUARY

In the morning we depart Agra and journey to the Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary, stopping enroute to visit the ancient ghost town of Fatehpur Sikri, and wander amongst its beautiful stone buildings set in the desert.

Onward, we arrive at our resort where you will have some free time to relax. In the late afternoon when the birds are at their best we will take a rickshaw into the Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary (UNESCO) to learn about the

DAY 11 RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK, SAFARIS

We spend the day in this park, which is famous for its tiger population. Here we learn about these elusive creatures as we travel by open vehicle. There are two safaris - one in the early morning and one in the late afternoon. In the past, sightings were not common but in recent years tiger sightings have definitely increased. We can never guarantee seeing wildlife but the chances of seeing a tiger are pretty good. Other wildlife in the park includes deer, crocodiles, Asian sun bears, leopards, monkeys and a wide variety of birds.

Overnight at Ranthambore.

DAY 12 TO JAIPUR

In the morning we depart Ranthambore for Jaipur, the "Pink City" of Rajasthan, which was built in 1728 and holds many attractions for the modern-day traveler. It earned its moniker as the Pink City because the rock that was used in the city's construction has a pink hue. Enjoy a relaxing evening in the Pink City or for those Arriving in the afternoon you have free time to sit by the lake and watch the pious perform their ablutions in the holy waters, or explore this fascinating town as troops of monkeys perform their antics around you.

Overnight in Pushkar.

DAY 15 PUSHKAR CAMEL FESTIVAL

We have planned our fall departures around one of India's largest festivals, the Pushkar Camel Festival. Pushkar is an oasis in the desert and is a special place in its own right. Every year Pushkar becomes a world-class spectacle during the Camel Festival, whose dates are timed with the lunar calendar. For centuries, traders have been coming to this event to buy, sell and trade oxen, cattle, mules and even elephants, but it is camels who hold center stage at Pushkar. It is estimated that up to 50,000 camels are bought, sold and traded every year at the Camel Fair. Overnight, Pushkar is transformed. Devotees, traders, musicians and jugglers flock to the town. Pushkar bursts with color, people, and gaiety during the week of the autumn full moon. Held for five days and culminating on the auspicious Purnima (full moon of the Hindu month of Kartik), the Pushkar Camel Fair is one of India's greatest festivals.

Today we will get up early to walk around the fair grounds and watch the trading of livestock in action. Talk to the farmers and learn where they traveled from to sell or trade their camels. Get up close and personal with the camels and learn about these fascinating creatures. Make sure your camera is ready at all times as the colorful decorations and amazing designs that the camels show off are truly something you will want to capture. We will watch the day's competitions and street theater and walk amongst the variety of vendors selling interesting handicrafts. In the evening we will take a camel safari to watch the sunset over the fair grounds and the desert.

Overnight in Pushkar.

DAY 16 TO JODHPUR, MEHRANGARH FORT

Today we depart Pushkar for Jodhpur. Once the former capital of Marwar State, Jodhpur was founded in 1459 by Rao Jodha, who himself claimed descent from Lord Rama (the hero of the epic Ramayana). The massive fort, Mehrangarh, came first and around it grew the city of Jodhpur, protected by a high stone wall with its seven gates and countless bastions.

Today, the city has grown to become the second largest city of Rajasthan yet still manages to maintain its medieval character. As in the past, Jodhpur remains one of the leading trading centers of wood, cattle, camels, salt and agricultural crops. However, the past is never very far behind and Jodhpur boasts some fine reminders of this glorious past - palaces, forts, temples and other elegant monuments of architectural and historical value. After lunch we will embark on a tour of the fort. Learn about the caste system and the rich history of the region. Take your time at each room, go back to your favorite place or just sit in the peaceful courtyards. We conclude our tour with a stop at the viewing point for a picture of the Jaswant Thada, a royal cenotaph made of white marble.

But this is only a portion of the educational experience. We believe that it is equally educational to meet local people on a non-commercial basis, visit their homes and even try to learn a few words in Hindi. Sometimes the most “educational” moments are spent sipping a cold drink in a street market.

5. HOW DO WE TRAVEL DURING THE TOUR?

All local transportation is included in the land price of the trip. Most of the transportation is by bus, although we also travel by boat, train and plane. Of course, we also explore on foot and have the option to ride camels in Pushkar.

6. WHAT ARE OUR ACCOMMODATIONS LIKE?

We always stay in good accommodations — hotels all have private bath or shower. Accommodations have been chosen on the basis of location, atmosphere and local charm.

7. WHAT ABOUT THE WEATHER?

There are wide variations in climate in northern India with winter, spring, summer, monsoon and autumn experienced in all regions. Generally, December and January are cool, with maximum temperatures around 70°F - 75°F (21°C-23°C), and minimum temperatures as low as 40°F (4°C). February and March are very pleasant, with temperatures starting to heat up in April, and peaking in late May at around 100°F (38°C). June to September bring the monsoon rains, followed by the October to December period that brings clear skies and cool weather.

8. WHEN IS PAYMENT DUE?

We would be happy to take care of your air arrangements. ElderTreks offers personalized flight itineraries — not group flights. Stop over en route, come in a few days early, or extend your stay. Call us for a customized itinerary.
